A UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY FOR HIGH RANKING LGBT CORPORATE LEADERS

The Executive Forum—now in its fifth year—is designed for high-ranking and emerging lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender corporate leaders from around the world to engage one another on emerging trends and topics.

The Executive Forum brings LGBT executives and leaders together for a unique, two-day experience to build connections, address challenges and opportunities, and take home tangible ways to enhance their effectiveness as leaders.

Co-chairs of the Executive Forum for 2012 are Mike Feldman and Renee Brown. Mike Feldman is a member of Out & Equal's Board of Directors and is Vice President and General Manager for Hewlett-Packard. Renee Brown is Senior Vice President and Director of Wealth, Brokerage and Retirement Marketing for Wells Fargo.

Christie Hardwick will again serve as lead facilitator for the Executive Forum, which will feature two inspiring plenary sessions, group work sessions and panel discussions. The Executive Forum concludes with the Leadership Celebration, which includes a reception and special dinner.

The Executive Forum, with only a limited number of seats available, is offering two classes — one for C-suite and high-ranking LGBT corporate executives, and the other for LGBT corporate leaders on the fast-track to executive roles within their companies. Transgender leaders, as well as leaders from communities of color, are strongly encouraged to apply.

If you have any questions about the Executive Forum or the Leadership Celebration, please contact Deputy Director Kevin Jones at 415-694-6536.
