Questions

Connecting Trans Families

Got Storytelling?

#LiveMutual

Live Proud

to rely on others because it's in our nature to need each other.

Life Reliant

because while you can achieve alone, happiness is gained through others.

Live Accepting

of vulnerability because there's no greater gift than making someone feel needed.

Live Giving

because offering all you have makes life deep beyond measure.

Live Resilient

to a world that teaches independence because together always was, and always will be, a better way.

Storytelling

Storytelling

is the most effective way to merge meaning and emotion.

Creating Community Through Storytelling

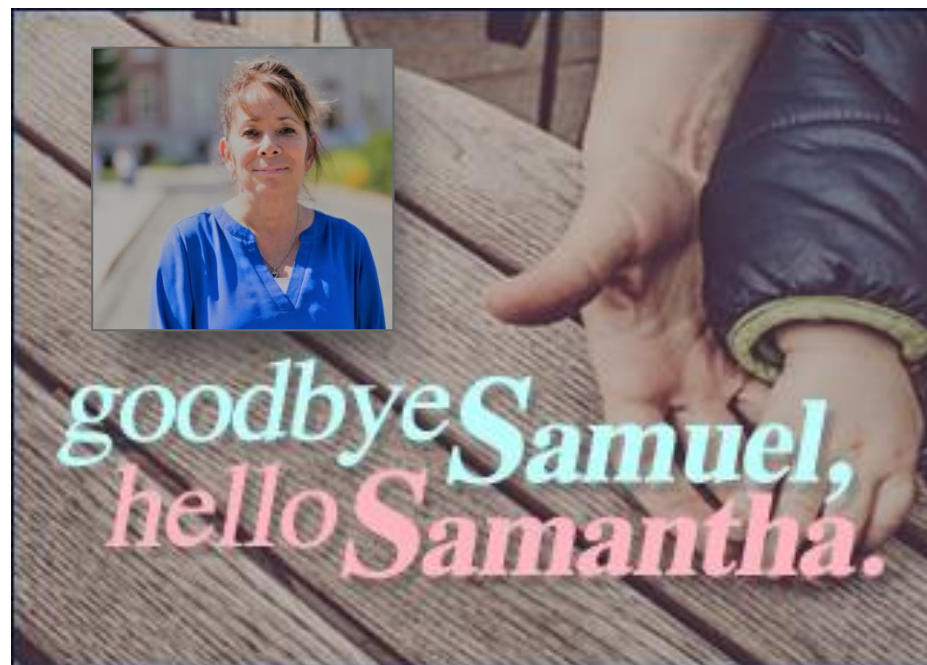

- Open to all employees who have a story to share.
- Facilitated by members of our Human Resource department.
- Designed to share stories that will teach, engage, and share our personal experiences.
- Storytellers are found through many venues beginning with new employee orientation.
- Stories have included homelessness, addiction, and the effects of a near death car accident.
